Pioneer Keeney Family

Keeney, Rev. Jonathan Anthony

Rev. Jonathan Anthony Keeney was born in Greenbrier Co., WV, February 10, 1778, the son of John and Annie Keeney. The family moved to Cook County, TN around 1790. On December 4, 1803 Jonathan was married to Mary McGlothlen. All the Keeney's were members of the Big Pigeon Baptist Church of that area and in 1812 Jonathan was "given liberty to preach." Around 1820 he moved his family to eastern Indiana. He spent much of his time in traveling and preaching and left his prosperous business and considerable property in the care of clerks and hired hands, taking a financial loss. By 1830 he had moved to the green county of Montgomery county, IN. He gave each of his children 40 acres there hoping to keep the family together and close to him. But by 1846 his son Charles moved to Iowa, establishing the town of Avon (old Avon), and by 1848 Rev. Jonathan Anthony Keeney, all his sons and daughters and grandchildren, with the exception of sons John Hiram and Peter, had followed Charles to the Avon, Carlisle and Scotch Ridge areas.

The children who moved to Iowa were Joseph Seaberry, Charles, Jonathan, Samuel Thomas, and daughters Elizabeth and husband Alanson Harrison, Nancy Ann and husband Samuel McCoy, and Mary Hannah and husband William Edwards.

Rev. Jonathan lived only a few years in Iowa. He died September 2, 1850 and was buried in the Watts family graveyard, later called the Avon Cemetery. Mary McGlothlen Keeney died 15 years later on September 3, 1865 at the home of their son, Charles, and was buried beside her husband.

Today there are still many descendants of Rev. Jonathan Keeney in the Carlisle area.

Rev. Samuel Thomas Keeney

Reprinted from HISTORY OF WARREN CO., IA; 1987, P. 713, 718

The Rev. Samuel Thomas Keeney was born February 21, 1818 near Crawfordsville, IN. He was married to Elizabeth Ethel Kessler February 2, 1848. Soon after their marriage, they came to Iowa in a wagon. It took them three weeks. They settled on some land near Carlisle. Like his father and grandfather, he was a minister in the Regular Baptist Church. His grandfather, the Rev. John Jonathan Keeney, was born a Keeney Knob, WV. His father, the Rev. John Anthony Keeney, was born at Jefferson City, TN. His mother, Mary Hannah McGloathlin, was born in Greenbrier CO., WV. They were known to be a religious family. Both parents are buried in the Avon Cemetery.

Not much is known of Rev. Samuel's early life to the writer, except for his ministry, visiting the sick, comforting the bereaved and performing marriages, as he traveled by horseback or buggy.

The first tax he paid was for $.40 in 1850 for taxes in 1849. The writer has most of his paid tax receipts up until the time of his death December 11, 1900. Also the family Bible bought in 1856.

Soon after his death, Elizabeth went to live with her son, Elmer and family. She told of the time, when Rev. Samuel was gone, two Indians came. They open the door, came in and sat down on chairs. The oldest son, Benjamin, was a tiny baby. She was sure they had come for him. She took a tea towel, wrapped up some freshly baked bread and other food and offered it to them. They accepted it, and said "Ugh" and left.

Elizabeth was a devoted Christian. A custom of the Baptist Church was "Washing of the Feet" at their June meetings. This was a very meaningful way of worship for her. She passed away July 29, 1912 while visiting her son George in Anthony, FL and is buried there.

The Rev. Samuel and Elizabeth Keeney were the parents of nine boys.

Benjamin Kessler was born November 28, 1848, died December 3, 1912 and is buried in the Carlisle Cemetery. His wife was Martha Elizabeth Randleman.

John Franklin was born December 29, 1850. He died January 20, 1850 and is buried in the Avon Cemetery, Polk County, IA.

George Krysher was born February 19, 1852. He died October 8, 1935 and is buried at Anthony, FL. His wife was Lydia Goforth. After her death he married Addie Caroline Connell.

Charles William was born October 10, 1854. He died May 25, 1857 and is buried at Avon Cemetery.

Joseph Albert was born May 16, 1858, and died August 28, 1902. He is buried in Mount Zion Cemetery, Oakley, Lucas, County, IA. His wife was Clara Bell Smith.

Nathaniel Francis was born December 21, 1860. He died March 4, 1890 and is buried in Avon Cemetery. His wife was Phoebe Hendrickson.

Edward Marion was born December 18, 1862 and died January 13, 1932. Place of burial is unknown. His wife was Elizabeth Ida Sheeler.

Samuel Perry was born February 2, 1866 and died February 12, 1950. He is buried in Redlands, CA. His wife was Belle Eggers.

Elmer Ashley was born September 10, 1868 and died June 10, 1941. He is buried at Liberty Center, IA. His wife was Eliza Savilla Smith.

The oldest and youngest sons, Benjamin and Elmer, were the only two of the boys that establish their homes in Warren County.

Ralph Keeney's collection

Ralph R Keeney of The Dalles began collecting boys books about 1971 and his hobby sort of grew into other areas.

Browsing through some of his collection recently, he uncovered a story which the Oregonian published in 1885. It was written about the snowstorm in The Dalles which paralyzed almost everything.

There was a train trapped in the gorge. A little mail came through on snowshoe from Goldendale.

Apparently the writer of the story was in The Dalles, but it is not identified by name.

The storm came five years before the Chronicle began publishing on December 15, 1890. The Dalles times Mountaineer files reveal a few items on storm and are included here in following the piece Keeney found in the Oregonian.

THE STORM AT THE DALLES

From the January 8, 1885 Oregonian

Never since the first settlement of Wasco County has so much snow been seen on the ground at one time as lay over nearly every portion of the county on the first day of January. Commencing Saturday, December 13, snow fell almost constantly for twenty days, and when the storm cleared away, 106 inches had fallen, which had settled until the actual depth was not far from sixty inches. A week after the storm began every town and settlement in the county was as completely isolated as if it was a distant thousand miles from any other place. Traveling even upon horseback was impossible and for many days the Dalles was the hub of the universe for all who chanced to be caught within its limits.

From the personal collection of:

Ralph R Keeney 214 E. 13th St. the Dalles, Oregon

The Dalles Weekly Times-Mountaineer

December 13, 1884

A brief note that appeared in that addition on page three said: "Last Thursday about two inches snow met the gaze of our citizens as they looked upon the outer world." The story went on to say how wonderful the snow was and how it marked the coming of winter.

December 20, 1884

"SNOWED IN" "The Heavens Opened Up and The Dalles is deluged by a four-day snowstorm." Story stated that a "Large quantity of snow" fell and that it was causing problems with trains and other forms of communication. It reported a snow blockade at Hood River closing the tracks.

December 27, 1885

"STORM TWO WEEKS OLD" a story cited disadvantages of living in the "frontier" few comments from the people usually one line about the weather.

January 3, 1885

"THE STORM" "Had communication from the east. Received mail and news from Pendleton, Yakima and points east. Mail from Goldendale has been coming in by snowshoe so we have had regular communications with them." "40 inches of snow reported in Yakima Valley. Loss of livestock feared."

January 10, 1885

A report of train that left The Dalles on December 18, 1884. The train was preceded by a snowplow. "The train reached a point below Hood River when it encountered an impassable snowbank. It was then discovered that the snow had filled in behind the train trapping it where it was. The train was stranded at that point for several days until a party of men could reach it that party was taken to Bonneville." "It was reported that two people had died of starvation on the train. These reports are unfounded."
