JOHN KINNE (1600-1677)

PURITAN ANCESTOR AND 2,000 DESCENDENTS

JOHN KINNE: PURITAN is the title of one New England historical account; and whether the spelling be KINNE or KEENE or KINNEY or KEENEY or KEENEY or another favorite spelling, we claim the same ancestry. For years the writer disregarded spellings other than KEENEY until he discovered that there are many more Kinnes and Kinneys around the country and their spelling was much earlier.

The early Kinne settlers in Massachusetts stayed with the Kinne spelling. One observer concludes that Keeney became the preferred spelling of some New London CT families and as they spread to Pennsylvania and westward so their Keeney spelling spread.

Historically, almost all these groups look back to England and Sir Thomas Kinne, who was made a baronet by James

I and fled to Holland because of religious persecution under Charles I. Some of his family preceded him to the colonies, first settling near Plymouth MA and Dover NH.

In 1969 Mahel Demers Benchley of Dundee FL wrote:

The line goes back with authority to Sir Thomas Keeney of Kings Lynn, Norfolk, England, who had at least three sons:

WILLIAM KEENEY (Keeney) wife Agnes, admitted to church 31 Mar 1646; he was b. c1601

JOHN KINNE b. c1600, m. before 1623 in England and came to Newbury MA

THOMAS (spelled Caney) b. 1611, settled in Dover NH; m. Elizabeth; he was called "of the county and town of York 1670"; a daughter married into the Tibbets family.

Sir Thomas also had one or more daughters, whose genealogical line KEENEY UPDATE would welcome.

2 JOHN KEENEY (Kinne on early papers) b. 1600 King's Lynn, England, d. 1670, will probated 30 Sept 1670 in Salem MA court, came to Salem in 1649, following his son Henry, listed as mariner and inn holder in Boston in 1662; married SARAH CHILVER (b 1603 in England, d. 1674 in Essex Co MA; came to America in 1621); DESCENDENTS:

3 HENRY KEENEY (KINNEY) b. 8 Jul 1623 in Lewden, Holland, bap 3 May 1624, d. 19 Jun 1696 in Newbury MA, parents had gone to Holland to escape religious persecution, name first appeared in Roxbury MA records 21 Jun 1639 when he was apprenticed to William Park by Vinc

ANCESTOR

the CHEEVER Family

13 CHEEVER, GREAT . . . GRANDMOTHER SARAH (c1600-16) a Housewife the daughter of unknown sarents was born about 1600, at King's Lynn, England. She married John Kenney in 1621 at King's Lynn.

Food at the Kenney home consisted of whatever was available. They ate game and fish when John could kill or catch it. The summer season produced bonuses in the form of wild berries and fruits. He also grew corn. If the crop was successful, they would eat wheat or rye, if it wilted or failed, through the winter. If the crop failed, they could go hungry and perhaps starve. Their diet contained many foods made with flour cakes, bread, and gravy. Except for corn, vegetables were scarce.

The Kenney family wore clothes that were functional, long wearing, and readily available. Sarah made all the clothes for her family. The material was homemade.

Sarah made the family's Medicine, herself. She brewed her home treatments from herbs and roots. Sickness was a constant dread to the Kenney family, for doctors were nonexistent and hospitals unheard of. She made poultices for boils from plug tobacco and she set broken bones with splints of sticks and bandages of leaves and old underwear. She often used Whiskey as a way to soothe physical pain.

Sarah died when and where is not Salem, Massachusetts.

MASSACHUSETTS

ent Peters, who had brought him from Holland in May 1635 via London on the ship ELIZABETH & ANN; listed in Ipswich in 1648 and appears twice in Salem vital records; as Henry Kenney he helped provide a meeting house for worship, beginning in 1672, served as a soldier in the taking of St. John's from the French, he and son Thomas both participated in King Philip's War. The Keeney Family home, conveyed to him in 1663, was destroyed by fire in 1696, he married ANK PUTNAM d/o Edward & Ann Compton Putnam 4 Feb 1629 at Greenwich in Kent in (2) Mrs Anna Lane, Malden MA widow of John Lane who was killed at Casco Bay 13 Sept 1688 (from Rev. Henry Kinne, Pioneer of Salem, Mass.,

Henry Kinne, the American progenitor of an extensive and honorable line of early New England and New York pioneers and their descendants was the son of John Kinney and Sarah Quaker and the grandson of Sir Thomas Kinne Baronet of King's Lynn, Co. Norfolk, England. (See Ancestry of Henry Kinne Unpublished genealogical.) His son John July 8, 1672 in King's Lynn, and baptised May 2, 1673 in Lynn, England, where his Puritan parents had gone to escape religious persecution. The name appears in early colonial records under various spellings as Kemy, Kemy, Kinne, Keeney, Keeney, Keeney, Kine, Keene, etc. In a deed given by Henry Kinne to his Puritan parents in different ways in the same document, "the English spelling for several hundred years previous is simply Keen, and the Middlesex spelling, "Keeneth" is also used. This Kinne was the first with the name of the family name as yet found. (See Our Family Name.) According to Peter's, University of Massachusetts, his name first appears in February, June 2, 1668, when he Henry Keeney, who was represented by Wm. Philip by Vincent Polley, who was presumably a relative, and who brought him from England. In May, 1671, by way of London on ship "Elizabeth and Ann" which sailed for the New World April 29th of that year. An Henry Kinne and Henry Keeney are reported in Ipswich, Mass., records in 1668. In Salem vital records, his name appears twice as Kinne, as signer of a court petition in Salem Village, Oct. 30, 1671 as Henry Keeney on the church roll of founders who voted Dec. 26, 1672 to build a meetinghouse, as Henry Keeney and in various forms in other Salem records and the records of Boston State House, but usually as Kinne or Henry.

6. CAPT. DAVID KENNEY b. 12 Mar 1714 at Salem, youngest son of John & Mary Smith Kenney, m. Mrs. Katherine Stearns on 21 Jul 1733 at Newbury; both resided in Boston

HISTORICAL NOTE: Numerous genealogical charts from Iowa, Missouri, Tennessee, Oregon, Idaho, Indiana and other states list DAVID (b. 1714) and his father, JOHN (b. 1679) as the progenitors of the KEENEYS of these and other states in the south and west. John received a land grant in Greenbrier Valley (now WV) in 1750 and lived almost to the end of the century. David, listed as father or brother of those who left the frontier, thanks at attacks from the Shawnee Indians, settling on land grants in Eastern Tennessee and Kentucky, before going in large caravans to Indiana, Missouri, Iowa and Oregon. No effort is made to list these thousands of descendants of John and/or David Keeney in THIS report. The author is a 9th/g grandson of these first Greenbrier WV settlers.

- Your last name is spelled Kinnis Dub .
- You have demanded the secret family discount at a KINNEY SHOES store
- Your 9th grade gym teacher always called you Kine.
- You answer the phone during dinner and the caller asks for Mr. or Mrs. Keen or Kin please. You respond, "Sorry, knowbody here by that name " CLICK!!!
- Your parents told you there were wealthy relatives in your families past, but nobody is exactly sure who they were, or where the money went.
- You have said a thousand times, "No damn it, theres no Y on the end."
- You travel many miles to visit the grave sites of Henry and Ann Kinne of Salem, Mass. You figure out later when you get home that they are actually located in Danvers, Mass.
- You are a Kinnis male and find yourself saying, "Yes Dear, whatever you say dear."
- Your children are born way smarter than you are, and you have absolutely NO control over them.
- Your early ancestors had many more children. Mine had so many kids they ran out of names. See Thomas and Martha Kinne in My Family Tree. They had 17 children. Too bad they weren't tax deductible then.

The Family Tree

I think that I shall never see
The finish of a family tree;
As it forever seems to grow
From roots that started long ago
Way back in ancient times,
In foreign lands and distant climes,
From them grew trunk and branching limb,
That dated back to times so dim.

One seldom knows exactly when,
The parents met and married then;
Nor when the twigs began to grow
With odd-named children row on row,
Though verse like this is made by me,
The end's in sight as you can see,
'Tis not the same with family trees
That grow and grow through centuries.

6. THEODORE b. 1748

Thomas Keeney, a native of Litchfield, Connecticut, who had first settled at Wapalopoc, near to Wilnot in 1780, and lived about the first seven in a brick house. The next year he brought his family, and in 1788 was situated on one of the abutments of Timothy Pickering, taken to Wilkes-Barre and kept in confinement all summer. During his absence, a party of men tried to take his house and attempted to push it into the river, but Mrs. Keeney hung to the chain with such determination, were after being dragged into the water that the men gave it up and left the brave woman in possession. His daughter, Mercy, in Sept 1788, married Richard Keeney, a famous soldier, being William's first wife and groom. She, like her mother, was a woman of great resolution. On one occasion a party of men had driven a prisoner upon a tree at Rocky Ford, and Mercy, although but 16 years of age, volunteered to swing upon the tree and keep the men off, while the men then shot to get the fishes which which the animal was killed. In 1812, Thomas Keeney sold to John Gamble and returned to Channing, N. Y.

NOTE: Records on the Ebenezer Keeneey-Mary Cok family are sparse and inconclusive, but referenced refer to two sons, Ebenezer and John. There seemingly is no quarrel with Ebenezer Jr, but numerous family historians cannot agree on John's parentage or the mother of his children;
 some accounts say that he married Sarah Webster, but records show that she married another John Keeneey: since there were so many Websters, including a governor and a prominent senator, maybe there were two Sarah Websters.
 Nevertheless, this JOHN headed an outstanding family, which includes a myriad of competent genealogists. He is placed here as being the most logical spot considering the dates, locations, and other family names.

To Forget
One's Ancestors.....
Is to be a Brook
without a Source.....
A Tree without a Root!
